This is an extra newsletter to bring awareness to our students safety, online. As we approach the holidays, it is timely to remind that our children need parental support with their interactions, online. Netsafe is New Zealand's independent, non-profit online safety organisation. Their website provides a number of resources to support with practical things, we can do to help keep our children positive and safe online. They also have a contact phone number if you have any concerns or have an online incident you wish to report.

I wish you all a safe and relaxing holiday and we look forward to seeing our students in Term 2.

ONLINE SAFETY PARENT TOOLKIT

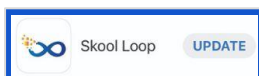

The Online Safety Parent Toolkit is a simple and practical seven-step framework to help parents with digital parenting in a rapidly changing world. Our downloadable version of the Parent Toolkit offers practical tips that will help you talk to your child about online safety. It includes:

- Quickstarter tips for parents, whānau and young people
- Information to enhance your digital parenting knowledge
- Details about the online risks and challenges your child may face
- Advice about how you can help your child

It's important parents feel confident to have ongoing conversations with their child about their online activities, as these conversations have been proven to minimise the harm that can occur if things do go wrong online.
